Turn Your Yard Into a Haven for Wildlife! By providing food, water, cover and places for wildlife to raise their young, your garden can join the more than 150,000 Certified Wildlife Habitat sites across the country <http://www.nwf.org/certifiedwildlifehabitat>

The Ohio-Area Yard Conservation Website

www.backyardhabitat.info

Attract butterflies, songbirds, hummingbirds, and backyard wildlife native to the Ohio area with native plants while making fun, easy, practical changes in how you manage your yard to make it sustainable and improve your community's environmental health. The website includes lessons learned, fliers, musical videos and links to help you whether you are a beginner or an expert!

Get in the Loop with Nature Scoop! Email subscribe@backyardhabitat.info if you would like to have timely information sent to you in a monthly nature email. It contains property maintenance tips tailored for the Ohio area, nature information, upcoming educational events and more. You can unsubscribe at any time, and your email is never shared for any other purpose.

Wild Ones: Native Plants, Natural Landscapes www.wildones.org/

Promotes environmentally sound landscaping practices to preserve biodiversity through the preservation, restoration and establishment of native plant communities. Wild Ones is a not-for-profit environmental education and advocacy organization.

Ohio Invasive Plants Council: www.oipc.info/specieslist.html

OIPC participates in statewide efforts to address the threats of invasive species to Ohio's ecosystems and economy by providing leadership and promoting stewardship, education, research, and information exchange

Bringing nature to life <http://www.enature.com/fieldguides/>

E Nature.com is the web's premier destination for information about the wild animals and plants of the United States. Over past years, eNature has consistently been one of the Internet's most-visited sites for nature and wildlife information and has won numerous awards and accolades. The site's core content of wildlife information about almost 6,000 individual species is the same data set used to create the printed Audubon Field Guides. All the data has been carefully reviewed and vetted by leading biologists, zoologists and other natural history specialists.

Ohio Natural Areas and Preserves Association – ONAPA www.onapa.org/

The dismantling of the DNR Division of Natural Areas and Preserves in 2008 has left our once nationally recognized system of state nature preserves in shambles. Many of the preserves are rapidly deteriorating and the features for which they were initially protected are being threatened. Ohio DNR simply does not have the capability to respond without additional commitment, funding and staff. ONAPA was formed to organize a volunteer workforce to assist in managing the nature preserves and to organize an effective constituency for natural area protection in Ohio. We ask you to explore this website, and join and volunteer to help ONAPA and the preserves.
